2009-2010 – Special Circumstances Appeal
Changing Status of Parent of Dependent Student to Divorced or Separated after Filing FAFSA as Married

You have indicated that there are special circumstances in your family's financial situation that affect your ability to pay for school. In order for our office to review your special circumstances, you must complete and return this form, with the required documentation listed below, to the CVTC Financial Aid Office.

BEFORE SUBMITTING THIS FORM, you must have received your Student Aid Report from the Department of Education and be registered for classes.

Student's Name (Please print)	Birth Date	@00 Student's CVTC ID No.

Federal laws governing financial aid allow the Financial Aid Office to recalculate financial need in cases of special circumstances not taken into consideration by the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA).The laws allow financial aid administrators to use "professional judgment" to make adjustments that adequately reflect the family's "ability" to pay. Special circumstances are considered on a case-by-case basis. A financial aid administrator's decision is final and cannot be appealed to the Department of Education.

Special Circumstances Appeal Documentation:

- Everyone requesting a special circumstance review must also go through the verification process. The documents required for the verification process are:
  - ☐ Dependent Verification Worksheet
  - ☐ Signed copy of Student's 2008 Federal Tax Return
  - ☐ Signed copy of Parents' 2008 Federal Tax Return
- You filed your FAFSA indicating that your parent was married and your parent has since become legally separated or divorced; and you must provide the following documentation:
  - ☐ Copy of legal separation papers or a copy of divorce papers for parent
  - ☐ Copy of the primary parent's 2008 W-2s that were used to complete their 2008 Federal Tax Return.

Forms may be printed from our web site at http://www.cvtc.edu/pages/332.asp. Submit this form and the above documentation to the Financial Aid Office. Please use the check boxes, above, to ensure that you have attached all required documentation. Incomplete applications will not receive consideration. During the review process you may be contacted to provide additional documentation.

I certify that the information provided on this form and accompanying documentation is true and correct to the best of my knowledge and belief. I agree that, if requested, I will provide documentation to support the information provided with this request, after the end of the current calendar year. I understand that underestimating the projected income could result in reduced eligibility, repayment of aid, or both.
